Dear Scott,
Re: 2620 NE 19th Street Pompano Beach FL 33062

What is going on in our neighborhood? I asked my wife,
"Who are these mean looking men loitering around the neighborhood?"

Straight up, these guys look mean. I mean really rough. I rarely get involved in something like this. But when she told me they are trying to put a COMMUNITY TRANSITIONAL RESIDENCE in the neighborhood, I had to draw a line with my foot in the sand. NO WAY! So, I took an interest and started watching what is going on. If these guys are trying to sober up, they should not have open containers of alcohol out in the street. I see knives on belt loops. On more than one occasion, I have seen emergency vehicles parked here. White vans (and others) keep pulling up and dropping off large numbers of people to stay here. Is this legal to have so many people stay in one house?? I don't think so. I'm a grown man and I don't feel safe to walk in my own neighborhood. Imagine how the small children and their parents must feel. Let's get our children back outside riding their bikes again. Let's see neighbors conversing outside again. Please bring back our neighborhood to it's normal happy self. Thank you for your time.

Please add to agenda at Zoning Board of Appeals Sept. 18th, 2025
