WHEREAS: in 1872, J. Sterling Morton proposed to the Nebraska Board of Agriculture that a special day be set aside for the planting of trees; and

WHEREAS: the holiday, called Arbor Day, was first observed with the planting of more than a million trees in Nebraska; and

WHEREAS: trees in our city increase property values, enhance the economic vitality of business areas, and beautify our community; and

WHEREAS: trees, wherever they are planted, are a source of joy and spiritual renewal.
