§ 157.61 VESTED RIGHTS DETERMINATIONS.

(A) Nothing contained in this chapter shall be construed or applied to constitute a temporary or permanent taking of private property or the abrogation of validly existing rights. It shall be the duty and responsibility of the party alleging a taking or vested rights to affirmatively demonstrate the legal requisites of a taking or vested rights. Rights shall vest upon a demonstration to the City Commission that the provisions of F.S. § 163.3167(8), (1987) apply or that the applicant has relied in good faith upon some act or omission of the government; and has made such a substantial change in position or incurred such extensive obligations and expenses to their detriment that it would be highly inequitable to deny relief. To establish a taking, the burden shall be on the applicant to demonstrate that denial of the application will deny the applicant of all beneficial use of the property; and that no variances, alternative uses or other forms of relief are available which could, if approved afford the applicant a beneficial use of the property. Mere diminution of property value shall not constitute a temporary or permanent taking of private property.
