Attachment No. 1: Brief Project Description

Project Sponsor: City of Pompano Beach
Project Name: Water Treatment Plant Improvements
Phase 1: Deep Injection Well (IW2)
Latitude/Longitude: Water Treatment Plant (26°14'26.7" N, 80°07'15" W)
PSW ID: 4061129
Loan Number: WW0642D0 (Emerging Contaminant)

The City of Pompano Beach (City) owns and operates a 50 million gallon per day (mgd) water treatment plant (PWS ID: 4061129) that utilizes both conventional lime softening (LS) (40 mgd) and nanofiltration (NF) membrane (10 mgd) processes to treat raw water from the surficial Biscayne Aquifer. The City's water sampling program has identified the presence of emerging contaminants that are currently not regulated but are listed on the United States Environmental Protection Agency's Fifth Unregulated Contaminant Monitoring Rule (USEPA's UCMR5), in the raw water that supplies the water treatment plant. The water treatment plant buildout of the NF facility requires an additional deep injection well for the additional concentrate from new NF treatment train.

The City submitted a Request for Inclusion (RFI) to the Drinking Water State Revolving Fund (DWSRF) that was priority listed at the August 13, 2025, priority listing meeting. The City received two fund allocations for this project at the priority list meeting; a WW0642D0 loan ($5,595,305 with 100% principal forgiveness) with emerging contaminant funds and the WW0624E0 with conventional loan ($10,604,695) funds. The City intends to use SRF funds acquired to finance the additional deep injection well (IW-2), to address public health and welfare of the City's drinking water customers by providing compliance with PFAS NPDWR for the long term, in the most cost-effective manner possible.

Re: Facility Plan, Plans & Specifications Acceptance Letter - Pompano Beach (DW0624A)
Emerging Contaminants Water Treatment Plant Upgrades

Dear Mr. Watson:

The planning document entitled "City of Pompano Beach Emerging Contaminants Water Treatment Plant Upgrades, dated June 2024, Revised July 2025", is in conformance with the requirements set forth in Chapter 62-552, Florida Administrative Code (F.A.C.).

The plans and specifications entitled "City of Pompano Beach WTP Improvements & Buildout of the Existing Nanofiltration -Phase 1, dated June 2025, are also in conformance with the requirements set forth in Chapter 62-552, F.A.C. Both the planning documents and the plans and specifications are accepted effective July 16, 2025.

Our review of the plans and specifications was performed only to verify conformance with the administrative requirements of the State Revolving Fund (SRF) Loan Program. We did not review the technical aspects of the documents in order to avoid duplicating the review performed or that may be performed by the permitting agency or agencies.

As a result of the acceptance of the above documents, the City of Pompano Beach may now compete for a construction loan at the next priority list meeting scheduled for August 13, 2025. If the City of Pompano Beach successfully competes for construction funding at this meeting, the next steps will be the submission of a loan application for construction, execution of this construction loan agreement and submission of the bidding information for this contract to the Department for review. Please note that any construction costs incurred prior to adoption of the project on the priority list are ineligible for reimbursement from the Department.

Upon receipt of complete bidding information, the Department will authorize the contract award. Construction disbursement requests cannot be processed until this authorization has been issued. Once the preconstruction meeting has been scheduled, please notify the Department of the date and time. Additionally, all addenda and change orders issued for this contract must be submitted for our review.

Please coordinate with Mahnaz Massoudi, SRF Project Manager, on any pre-bid or bid meetings so that SRF requirements during construction can be discussed with bidders and staff.

If you have any questions or need further information, please contact the project manager Mahnaz Massoudi at (850) 245 2960 or email at Mahnaz.Massoudi@FloridaDEP.gov.

Sincerely,

Emerging Contaminants Water Treatment Plant Upgrades Revised – July 2025

Ms. Mohammed:

As requested, the following is a summary of the revisions to the Planning Document for the City of Pompano Beach Emerging Contaminants Water Treatment Plant Upgrades Project Revised – July 2025:

1. SRF Comment: I was not able to find a figure or a map that shows the proposed projects clearly on the map, specially the DIW # 2. I found the figure 3-3 but it doesn't show the proposed project on it.

2. SRF Comment: The attached signed resolution should be replaced with the draft resolution in the facility plan...

MBC Response: Draft resolution was replaced with the signed resolution (PDF page 482/489).

3. SRF Comment: The last page of the attached Business Plan (Certification) for drinking water projects should be signed by the chief financial officer or the authorized representative...

MBC Response: Executed certification was inserted (PDF page 267/489).

It is important to note these revisions were necessary for the construction portion of the Phase 1: Deep Injection Well IW-2 and Buildout of the Existing Nanofiltration Facility Projects to be accepted for the August 2025 priority list meeting and were made based on comments provided by the State Revolving Fund (SRF) Project Manager that was assigned to the projects in June 2025. The original planning document was reviewed and accepted by a different, former, SRF Project Manager in September 2024.

Please do not hesitate to contact me if you have any questions, comments, or concerns.

1.0 Summary of Findings and Recommendations

This Water Facility Plan (Plan) was prepared for the City of Pompano Beach (City) to meet the requirements of the Florida Department of Environmental Protection Drinking Water State Revolving Fund (FDEP DWSRF) loan funding of drinking water projects under the DWSRF Emerging Contaminants funding program. The City of Pompano Beach is located in Broward County and provides water, sewer, and stormwater services to customers within the City limits and some limited areas within the adjacent coastal communities of Lighthouse Point and Lauderdale-by-the-Sea.

This Plan considers alternatives for water treatment improvements at the existing water treatment plant (WTP) location at 1205 N.E. 5th Avenue in Pompano Beach, Florida. The boundaries of the WTP site are considered the planning area for this study. The City is fully developed with primarily residential properties mixed with commercial properties along with some agricultural, industrial, institutional, and government-owned properties. The City area includes approximately 15,736 acres of land which is divided into 30,011 individual properties. The City operates and maintains its own drinking water supply, treatment, and distribution systems to provide high quality drinking water meeting all current water quality standards to customers within the service area. Raw water supply facilities located within the service area, outside of the WTP site, include 24 raw water supply wells and well pumps and a raw water transmission pipping system conveying raw water to the WTP. The facilities located on the WTP site (planning area) include a 50 million gallon per day (mgd) water treatment plant consisting of conventional lime softening (LS) and nanofiltration (NF) membrane treatment, finished water storage, and a high service pumping system. The treated, finished water facilities located within the service area include a water transmission and distribution pipe network throughout the service area, as well as remote storage and booster pumping facilities.

On April 10, 2024, the United States Environmental Protection Agency (USEPA) released the final National Primary Drinking Water Regulation (NPDWR) for certain identified per- and polyfluoroalkyl substances (PFAS) with a compliance date for the PFAS NPDWR of 2029. The enforceable maximum contaminant levels (MCLs) for the PFAS constituents are as follows:

- PFOA: < 4.0 parts per trillion (ppt)
- PFOS: < 4.0 ppt
- PFHxS: < 10 ppt
- PFNA: < 10 ppt
- HFPO-DA: < 10 ppt
- PFNA, PFHxS, PFBS, HFPO-DA: < 1 Hazard Index.

The City's water sampling program has identified the presence of certain PFAS constituents in the raw water that supplies the WTP at levels that exceed the MCLs for the regulated PFAS constituents. The City submitted a Request for Inclusion (RFI) for an emerging contaminants upgrades project to the DWSRF which was priority listed at the August 9, 2023 quarterly meeting. The City's project is intended to address public health and welfare of the City's drinking water customers by providing compliance with the proposed PFAS NPDWR for the long term, in the most cost-effective manner possible. In general, the proposed WTP upgrades project will consist of a phased approach. The first phase will meet near-term water demands and consist of a 10 mgd capacity build-out of the City’s existing NF facility to a total NF capacity of 20 mgd. The second phase will meet longer-term water demands (beyond five years) and will consist of construction of a 10-mgd capacity membrane facility that will utilize a combination of Biscayne Aquifer-supplied NF and Floridan Aquifer brackish water-supplied reverse osmosis (RO) treatment, as well as decommissioning of the existing LS process. The proportion of NF to RO in the second phase will be determined by raw water availability, as discussed below.

Because the NF treatment technology is substantially less costly on both capital and operating cost bases than brackish water RO, the City plans to investigate and pursue opportunities to obtain additional raw water allocations from the Biscayne Aquifer to maximize utilization of the NF technology. Strategies that will be investigated and pursued under this program will include (but may not be limited to) additional withdrawal offsets from the C-51 Reservoir Project (e.g., Phase 2), offsets from expansion of the City’s existing reclaimed water reuse system, and other alternative water supply opportunities. The total project costs presented in this document assume that the Phase 2 facility will be all brackish water RO, which is considered the conservative, worst-case scenario from a cost perspective.

When completed, this project will provide compliance with the proposed PFAS NPDWR. The project costs for the selected alternative are summarized below.

Phase/Cost Component	Phase 1 Buildout of NF Facility	Phase 2 New NF Facility	Phase 2 New RO Facility	Total (Worst-Case RO Facility)
Design	$4,573,000	$7,683,500	$15,690,500	$20,263,500
Construction	$50,811,000	$85,373,000	$174,338,000	$225,149,000
Engineering Services During Construction	$4,573,000	$7,683,500	$15,690,500	$20,263,500
Total	$59,957,000	$100,740,000	$205,719,000	$265,676,000

As discussed in Section 4, the buildout of the NF facility will provide sufficient PFAS-compliant treatment capacity to meet the City’s near-term water demands. Construction of a new 10-mgd capacity NF/RO facility will be necessary to replace 10 mgd of existing lime softening treatment capacity to meet longer-term water demands. A detailed breakdown of the opinion of probable project costs is provided in Section 4 of this report.
