Vince Wooten Notes: Recommend Full Funding. New Senior program CDBG meals on wheels proposal and scope includes supportive services through Elderly Arts & Craft Project that would provide arts and craft classes to the elderly. These classes would provide tangible physical and mental health benefits to Pompano Beach elderly population. These arts and craft skills would allow each person served with the opportunity to build relationships and inspire creativity.

The Active Adult / Senior Citizen Program encourages individuals to become active, social, and productive members of the community. The goal of the program is to build and sustain strong community ties within the elderly population while providing diversified recreational, social, cultural and educational life enhancing experiences for all to enjoy. The program provides a variety of supplemental and educational activities that will have a overall positive impact on the program participants while encouraging community involvement and socialization.

Vince Wooten Notes: Requesting $40,500 for salary at 100% for 4 Teachers, 3 Directors for Program related activity in connection with instruction, mentoring, classroom management and creation of MAPs (Multifaceted Action Plans) for each student. In addition, Site Directors (3): The Site Director for each center reports directly to the Director of Programs, acting as a liaison between the teachers and the Director of Programs. There are no alternative funding sources committed to the project; however, application is leveraged 30% which is reflected in the score.

Ratio of additional Directors to Teachers are excessive. Recommend project funding be limited to 3 additional Teachers.
