Whereas: Teachers in all learning environments play a vital role in helping students develop their talents, pursue their interests, and reach their full potential, preparing them to lead successful and meaningful lives; and

Whereas: teachers are trusted and respected professionals whose dedication, creativity, and commitment provide students with high-quality, innovative, and inclusive educational experiences; and

Whereas: strong partnerships between teachers, parents, and communities are essential to ensuring that every child regardless of zip code, income, or background, has access to equitable opportunities for success; and

Whereas: Broward County Public Schools, the sixth-largest school district in the nation and the second-largest in the State of Florida, serves a diverse student population and relies on the expertise and dedication of thousands of teachers who work tirelessly to support academic achievement and student well-being; and

Whereas: the success of Broward County Public Schools' dedicated teachers in helping students realize their limitless potential directly impacts the strength, prosperity, and future of our community; and

Whereas: it is fitting that we recognize and celebrate the contributions of every teacher who has had a positive influence on the lives of our residents.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Rex Hardin, Mayor, on behalf of the City Commission and residents of the City of Pompano Beach, Florida, do hereby proclaim May 4 – 8, 2026 as "Teacher Appreciation Week" in the City of Pompano Beach, and I encourage all residents to join in honoring our teachers for their dedication, passion, and invaluable service to our community. We extend our appreciation and gratitude to all of the teachers in Pompano Beach and Broward County.

DONE this 28TH day of April, 2026.
