“A MAN OF SERVICE”

Rev. Wylie L. Howard, Sr., is Founder and CEO of Choices Network Systems, Inc. Choices Network Systems, Inc serves as the parent company of Choices Children and Families Consortium which is a foster care management agency with locations in Dade County. Choices has three homes for adults/or children transitioning out of the system of care. These homes are in Pompano Beach, Florida. He is also the founder of Choices Community Development Organization a multiple housing entity for low-income families.

He is currently focused on providing alternative education opportunities to those youth who have chosen a SACS Accredited High School Diploma instead of a GED. Through Choices Virtual High School Diploma Program, children who have not been successful in a mainstream public school can effectively reach their educational goals. Choices Virtual High School Diploma Program is in Pompano Beach and Atlanta, Georgia. There are plans to bring this educational initiative to Dade and Palm Beach County as well. Rev. Howard works closely with BSO of Pompano Beach by providing Drug Prevention and Intervention Programs to at-risk youths.

Rev. Howard started the organization 22 years ago. During his career working with disadvantaged children and families, he has been responsible for program effectiveness, research, board development, engaging community leaders in the mission of reaching out to “least, lost and left out”. He continues to work with state funding agencies and strategic planning committees and organizations.

He is a product of the Broward County School System, and a graduate of Blanche Ely High School. Rev. Howard earned his Associate of Science Degree from Ft. Lauderdale College in Business Management. He later earned his Bachelor of Science Degree in Business Administration from the same institute. He received his Master of Theology Degree from Logos Bible Seminary. He obtained his Doctor of Theology on June 28, 2014, from The Gate of Bethel Bible College.

Rev. Wylie L. Howard, Sr., was employed by Lundy Technical Center as a machine technician and manufacturing manager before retiring after 26 years of service. He also served as Executive Vice President of the Broward County Urban League for 2 years.

He was the Founding Director of First Call for Help of Broward County which is now 211. He served in that position for 2 years.

Rev. Howard founded Choices Integrated Services, LLC in 2008. Choices Integrated Services provide economic development consultation and opportunities to small businesses in the community. Choices Integrated Services focus is to help small businesses create jobs that would promote economic growth for the community.

Rev. Wylie L. Howard, Sr., was instrumental in the development of Pinnacle Village, Eagle Pointe, Ortanique Estates, Marquis Apartments and Sonata Apartments. Choices built its first Pompano Beach low- income house in 2008.

He is the Pastor of St. James Missionary Baptist Church located in Pompano Beach, Florida and he is actively involved with several clergy groups and community boards in the tri-county area. He is the Chair and 1st Vice President of Pompano Christian Clergy Council.

Finally, he is married to Evangelist Lady Celestine Howard, and he is the father of four children.

Dear Mr. Harrison:

It is with much enthusiasm that I recommend 2300 N.W. 6th Street to Rev. Dr. Wylie L. Howard, Sr.

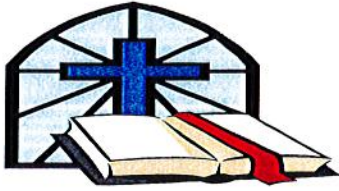

I am a resident of Pompano Beach, and I am a participant of Urban League Senior Program. Rev. Howard opened his Community Outreach Office located at 2300 NW 6th Street, Pompano Beach, Florida 33069, to learn new job skills that would improve their ability to work again.

Rev. Howard strengths are complemented by his demonstrated leadership skills and his heartbeat for the community. He is also the pastor of St. James Missionary Baptist Church located in Pompano Beach.

Sincerely,

Mr. Greg Harrison, City Manager
City of Pompano Beach
100 W. Atlantic Blvd
Pompano Beach, Florida 33060

Dear Mr. Harrison,

The outpouring of affection and gratitude for Rev. Dr. Wylie L. Howard, Sr., provides me with the opportunity to commemorate this outstanding citizen who works tirelessly to unite us all in Pompano Beach. Rev. Howard's life and works form an inspiring example for every leader of our city. We have a duty to ensure all current and future citizens of Pompano Beach know his story. We propose a recognition that emphatically communicates how Rev. Howard is touching the lives of everyone in Pompano Beach, Florida.

He is also the founder of Choices Network Systems Community Housing Development Organization a multiple housing entity for low and moderate-income families located in Pompano Beach. Choices built its first low and moderate-income home in 2003. Rev. Wylie L. Howard, Sr., was instrumental in the development of Pinnacle Village, Eagle Pointe and Ortanique Estates, Marquis Apartments on MLK Blvd, and the soon coming Sonata 120 units apartments. He became pastor of St. James Missionary Baptist Church located in Pompano Beach, Florida in 1999. Rev. Howard serves as Chair and 1st Vice President of Pompano Christian Clergy Council.

I believe it is most appropriate to commemorate our profound leader (Rev. Dr. Wylie L. Howard, Sr.) by renaming a street that unites us all.

I support the renaming of 2300 N.W. 6th Street to Rev. Dr. Wylie L. Howard, Sr.

Blessings,

Pastor Gary McLamore
