As a resident (non-owner) of Admiralty Towers, 750 N Ocean Blvd in Pompano Beach, I would like to state I am not in favor of a variance for construction of a tower by St. Gabriel Church (P&Z Number 25-11000018).

My reasons are driver and pedestrian safety. A1A is already dangerously busy with many walkers, bicyclists, drivers of cars, trucks, motorcycles, golf carts, busses, electric bikes, scooters, mopeds, skateboarders, and people walking their dogs. A tower in this location would be an unnecessary distraction and obstruction of line of sight for all of the above people on the move.

Sincerely,
Corinne Carroll
