

MATHEWS CONSULTING JOINS BAXTER & WOODMAN

We are pleased to announce that we are now part of Baxter & Woodman, Inc. Consulting Engineers.

Combining Mathews and Baxter & Woodman allows us to build upon the strengths of both companies in serving public sector clients with water, wastewater, infrastructure, stormwater, and transportation engineering. Our team has joined Baxter & Woodman's 200+ professionals, expanding our reach in GIS, wastewater treatment, instrumentation and controls, trenchless technology, transportation planning, design and construction services.

Together, we are committed to providing personal service and quality engineering consulting to every client.
