ANDREW HAYZE

"I am a visual storyteller and seeker of freedom. My motivation is centered around happiness and authenticity. My work can be summarized by the message "Be You." Which means to chase the thing you truly love unapologetically. Anchored by a desire for a world with no limits and a relentless pursuit of new and original designs. For that reason my time is spent observing my surroundings, I believe art is a mirror highlighting moments of freedom or lack thereof. Much of my work is not limited to traditional canvas, but rather spread across different mediums such as fashion textiles, graphic design, murals, and of course fine art painting.
