Scott

Sorry to bother you again. This is an email from our direct neighbor to the west. Can you upload this email or does he have to send it to an address himself?

Thanks

Jeremy

To Whom It May Concern:

I have owned and managed the property at 3208 SE 7th Street in Pompano Beach since November 30, 2001.

The property located at 741 Hibiscus Avenue has completely changed since January 2017.

It has turned into a beautiful property along with better tenants. In my opinion this property has helped to increase the neighborhood's property values.

I fully support the owners to obtain their requested license.

Hopefully they will continue to own and manage this property for many years. They are an asset to the neighborhood and to Pompano Beach.

Sincerely,

Benjamin M. Alaimo
