HISTORY

The Pompano Beach Cemetery was incorporated over 100 years ago and is the second oldest cemetery in Broward County, and the fifth oldest in all of South Florida.

The Pompano Beach Cemetery was founded in the early 1900's on land donated by Henry Flagler; it is one of the oldest cemeteries in Broward County. Members of many of the city's founding families are buried here.

The City of Pompano Beach Cemetery consists of four lawns; the Center Lawn, West Lawn, North Lawn and the South Lawn.

The Cemetery Division of the Public Works Department handles the burial of your loved ones, ensuring the proper closure of your plot and the maintenance of the Cemetery property in a professional and dignified manner.

The City has recently mapped a new section of the Center Lawn for new sales. This lawn provides approximately 3,000 plus new plots available for purchase. The City also has a Columbarium niches on the North Lawn to house the cremated remains of your loved ones.
