Dear Scott and rezoning commission,

This email represents our plea to deny rezoning of 2500 NE 19th Street Pompano Beach, FL 33062 to a Community Transitional Residence.

We currently maintain a very safe and friendly neighborhood with lots of small children playing happily in the streets and a feeling of "safeness" in our neighborhood. Lately it has transitioned into the opposite of this. I have seen grown men full of tattoos fighting in the street in front of this residence. There is screaming and yelling. There is outside alcohol consumption and weapons. The children are afraid to ride their bicycles here, and any smart parent would not let them. Please don't make another generation of children stay inside. Covid was bad enough,

Please send this to the Zoning Board of Appeal to DENY the variance.
Thank you.

Sincerely,
Paula and David Holder
