Profiles IN LEADERSHIP

HIALEAH HOSPITAL

Lowdes Camps, RN, MHSA CHIEF NURSING OFFICER

As Chief Nursing Officer of Hialeah Hospital, Lowdes Camps is responsible for ensuring high quality, safe and appropriate nursing care as well as overseeing other designated patient care functions and services within the hospital. Just this year, she helped train the nursing staff for Hialeah Hospital's new Senior Care Emergency Room. Camps has been a part of the Hialeah Hospital family for over 20 years, having joined as a Critical Care Nurse in 1986. Prior to becoming CNO in 2007, she held various administrative and patient care positions within Hialeah Hospital.

Camps has received multiple awards in the healthcare industry, recognizing her dedication to patient care and safety. She received recognition as an "Accomplished Professional" from the Camara de Comercio Hispana de Hialeah in 2006, an "Award of Merit" by the City of Hialeah in 2006, and Tenet's Presidential Award for exemplary service in 2003.

Patrick Downes CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER

As Chief Operating Officer of Hialeah Hospital, Patrick Downes is responsible for the day-to-day operations of the 378-bed acute care hospital as well as working with the leadership team in ensuring that the staff delivers high quality, cost effective care while promoting the hospital's image, values, and services across the community. As COO, Downes has been heavily involved in several exciting projects at Hialeah Hospital including the opening of the Senior Care Emergency Room, the remodeled MRI Suite, and the new Special Procedures Rooms, which all opened within the last year. Prior to joining Hialeah Hospital in 2010, Downes served as Associate Administrator for North Shore Medical Center from 2008-2009 and later Associate Administrator for Tenet Florida Physician Services from 2009-2010.

He is an active member of the community volunteering with multiple organizations including Friends of St. Jude- Miami Chapter, the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation,

BROWARD HEALTH NORTH

Donna Valerioti REGIONAL MANAGER, LABORATORY

Donna Valerioti has been working at Broward Health North for the past 12 years and has been a part of the Broward Health system for the past 33 years.

As regional manager of the laboratory, her first priority is making sure all 44 employees provide high-quality laboratory services for the benefit of the patients. As the leader of this busy group of professionals, one of her ongoing objectives is to ensure all of her team members have the proper training and equipment to maintain high standards of service and performance, all while being fiscally responsible.

As a Green Belt Six Sigma Valerioti leads and participates in a variety of hospital process improvement projects including finance, radiology, infection control and short stay observation teams. Donna is also part of the hospital's mentor/mentee program and enjoys educating future leaders of healthcare operations.

She says the best part of her job is working with a wonderful staff that truly loves and takes pride in their job.

Linda Thomas REGIONAL MANAGER - FACILITY SERVICES

Linda Thomas says the best part of her job is working with such an exceptional team of professional, caring people. She has been at Broward Health North (BHN) for the past 40 years.

As regional manager of facility services, her team of 30 employees is responsible for the construction, renovation, grounds (15 acres) and maintenance of a 409-bed, more than 500,000-square-foot hospital that occupies nine floors.

One of her ongoing responsibilities is the management of the hospital's $70-million dollar project which includes general refurbishment, addition of operating rooms, a completely new emergency room and facade on the building and new central energy plant.

During her tenure at BHN, she has made sure her team is well equipped and trained by including cross-training within the department, having employees attend seminars and bringing in vendors to conduct additional training and in-services. She credits the success of the department to her wonderful staff.
