Dear Planning and zoning board,

My name is Peter Troccoli, a current resident when not attending medical school at 418 Sunset Drive Pompano Beach, FL 33062. Pompano Beach has been my home for most of my life and I believe it has so much potential to offer current and future residents. As such, I am emailing you today to voice my support for the proposed condo project, I believe it sends a positive message to current and future residents that Pompano Beach is forward thinking and looking to invite further investment and increase the tax revenue base. I hope this adds to the ongoing discussion and further provides insight into what current Pompano Beach residents think. I hope this email finds you well.

Regards,
Peter Troccoli
