

Proclamation

WHEREAS: Curtain Call Playhouse, is the longest-running professional theatre based in Pompano Beach; and

WHEREAS: Curtain Call Playhouse is celebrating their 20th year of producing and performing live theatre from musicals, to dramas, to classics, and comedies, as well as their excellent children's programming, drama workshops and summer camps; and

WHEREAS: Curtain Call has worked with over 3500 artists, and over 3000 children in the arts; and

WHEREAS: their partnerships with cities and cultural centers helps them serve over 7000 audience members a year; and

WHEREAS: their mission, as a nonprofit theatre company, has been to bring the excitement of live theatre to local communities with the goal of entertaining the seasoned theatre goer as well as inspiring a whole new generation of audience; and

WHEREAS: Kris Coffelt, founder and artistic director, has been at the helm of Curtain Call Theatre since its inception. She is a member of the professional unions, Actors Equity Association, for live theatre, and Screen Actors Guild/American Federation of Artists, for film and television.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Lamar Fisher, Mayor, on behalf of the City Commission of Pompano Beach, Florida, would like to thank Kris Coffelt and Curtain Call Playhouse for providing and nurturing cultural arts within our City for the past 20 years. We look forward to their continuation of service to this community with their main stage shows and children's programming.

DONE this 9th day of May, 2017.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Lamar Fisher", written over a horizontal line.

Lamar Fisher
Mayor

