

The City's Request for Proposal documents are available upon request, as the file is too large to make available in Legistar.

The contract documents available for review are working draft documents that will have changes made to them upon review by our City Attorney.