With just one week before the ZBA hearing that has already been postponed, for some unknown reason, Galuppi has decided to once again use the metal accordion shutters at 9PM tonight, that horrifically screech and disturb the entire building, and one will now assume, they will be screeching at apx 4:30AM 7/9/21.

It just continues to prove my assertions, they have little or no regard for the neighbors, and I would assume in my opinion, this is being done on purpose right before the ZBA hearing.

Let them claim this is not true as to using the shutters tonight, I'll simply attach a video.
