Summary Explanation/Background:

City Ordinance 34.107 is requested to be amended to reflect the position changes (classification and range) included in the City's approved and adopted budget for Fiscal Year (FY) 2018-2019 and pursuant to labor agreement with the City's collective bargaining unit(s). Fiscal impacts include cost of salary and benefits and are estimated based on anticipated hiring rates. It should be noted that these changes include the addition of newly created departments of the City - Cultural Affairs and in-house staffing of the CRA Department. In addition, position and program priorities, as established by the City Commission and Administration such as, Parking Operations Manager, Housing and Social Services Manager (homeless services), Emergency Management Coordinator and the addition of five (5) Park Rangers have been included. For further details please see staff memo.

Origin of request for this action: Human Resources

Fiscal impact and source of funding: $1,319,965.00 in salaries and benefits. Departments have budgeted for these expenditure which have been approved and adopted in FY 2019 departmental budgets.
