Summary Explanation/Background:

Pursuant to State Statue 200.065, taxing authorities are required to adopt Fiscal Year tentative and final millage rates and citywide budget following the first and the final public hearings. At the public hearings, the roll back rate, percentage of increase over the roll back rate, and the millage rate to be levied must be publicly read.

For more information on the recommended EMS millage rate and EMS recommended budget for FY 2019, please refer to the City's FY 2019 Recommended Budget Books published on the City's website:
