Summary:

The following is a summary of information on the subject property. The applicant is requesting Major Site Plan approval in order to construct a 25,500 sq. ft. restaurant/retail building and a 5,411 sq. ft. RaceTrac gas station and convenience store. Additional site improvements will include new sidewalks, landscaping, parking, and a large sodded space between the outparcel buildings. The combined footprint of the existing and proposed buildings is 412,673 square feet on a 1,180,423 sq. ft. (27.1 acre) site (a lot coverage of 35%). This site plan was reviewed by the Development Review Committee on May 6, 2020 and by the Architectural Appearance Committee on September 1, 2020.

The applicant has received a variance approval from the Zoning Board of Appeals (20-11000004) to provide bollards between the parking spaces and the gas station in lieu of a continuous curb. They have also received approval of two Superior Design Alternatives, which allow the outparcel buildings to be constructed without matching the principal building and for a portion of the street-facing windows on the convenience store to be opaque.

The subject property, commonly known as the Festival Flea Market, was built in 1986 shortly after the area was annexed into the City of Pompano Beach. This proposal is to construct two outparcel buildings in place of surplus parking between the main building and W Sample Road.

The property is located on the southwest corner of W Sample Road and NW 27 Avenue.
